read from the second	*	CLASSIFICATION SLC SC MONTROL/US SHIPL OF LA	Madelite ett. Maail 2002 (1908) 46 (1908) 44 (1908) 46 (1908) 16 (1908) 16 (1908) 16 (1908) 16 (1908) 16 (1908)
മവവ	NTDV	Soviet Mone of Germany REPORT
			05V4
1OF4	C	Length Committee of the Land Committee of the Committee o	25X1
		25X1 Dung 07XW77	051/4
	ioitau.	PLACE OB AINED I	25X1
		ONTENT25X1
		INEDATE PREPARED 17 November 194	: 9 ::
		ES	CONTRACTOR OF THE STREET OF TH
PAGE	ES	1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)	25X1
REMA	ARKS		Managardian appropriate day annually in the Additional Security States
an rangement	-
< 1	25	X1
	20.	 	-
		30 September 1949
	L.
	1	The former TARNETITZ (M 54/0 30) airfield hangars were de	estroyed
	.L.,	and the concrete landing field was damaged in several spo	ots.
	ر. ملآء	The former TARNETITZ (M 54/0 30) airfield hangars were de and the concrete landing field was damaged in several spo (Location of airfield, see Annex.) The houses west of th field were occupied by German refugees.	ots.
	,	and the concrete landing field was damaged in several spo (Location of airfield, see Annex.) The houses west of the	ots.
	1. 2.	and the concrete landing field was damaged in several spo (Location of airfield, see Annex.) The houses west of the field were occupied by German refugees.	ots. ne air-
		and the concrete landing field was damaged in several spo (Location of airfield, see Annex.) The houses west of th field were occupied by German refugees. Early October 1949 The TARNETITZ airfield was not occupied. No reconditions	ots. ne air-
		and the concrete landing field was damaged in several spo (Location of airfield, see Annex.) The houses west of th field were occupied by German refugees. Early October 1949 The TARNETITZ airfield was not occupied. No reconditions work was under way. 11 October 1949 The southern edge of the concrete landing field of the TARNETITE of the concrete landing field of the CARNETITE of the concrete la	ots. ne air- ing ARME-
		and the concrete landing field was damaged in several spo (Location of airfield, see Annex.) The houses west of th field were occupied by German refugees. Early October 1949 The TARNETITZ airfield was not occupied. No reconditions work was under way.	ots. ie air- ing ARME~
< 1		and the concrete landing field was damaged in several spo (Location of airfield, see Annex.) The houses west of th field were occupied by German refugees. Early October 1949 The TARNETITZ airfield was not occupied. No reconditions work was under way. 11 October 1949 The southern edge of the concrete landing field of the TARTITZ airfield was torn up. The hangars and kasernes were destroyed. The airfield was serviceable but was unoccupi	ots. ie air- ing ARME~
K 1		and the concrete landing field was damaged in several spo (Location of airfield, see Annex.) The houses west of th field were occupied by German refugees. Early October 1949 The TARNETITZ airfield was not occupied. No reconditions work was under way. 11 October 1949 The southern edge of the concrete landing field of the TARTITZ airfield was torn up. The hangars and kasernes were destroyed. The airfield was serviceable but was unoccupied unguarded.	ots. ne air- ing ARME- eied anged in
K 1		and the concrete landing field was damaged in several spo (Location of airfield, see Annex.) The houses west of the field were occupied by German refugees. Early October 1949 The TARNEWITZ airfield was not occupied. No reconditions work was under way. 11 October 1949 The southern edge of the concrete landing field of the TAWITZ airfield was torn up. The hangars and kasernes were destroyed. The airfield was serviceable but was unoccupied unguarded. Comment: The condition and occupation of the airfield have not the since August 1949. Contrary to an assumption mentioned in august 1949, no reconstruction work has been seen at the field. The present condition of the airfield precludes	ots. ne air- ing ARNE- eied anged in
K 1		and the concrete landing field was damaged in several spo (Location of airfield, see Annex.) The houses west of the field were occupied by German refugees. Early October 1949 The TARNIWITZ airfield was not occupied. No reconditions work was under way. 11 October 1949 The southern edge of the concrete landing field of the TAWITZ airfield was torn up. The hangars and kasernes were destroyed. The airfield was serviceable but was unoccupied and unguarded. Comment: The condition and occupation of the airfield have not che since August 1949. Contrary to an assumption mentioned in August 1949, no reconstruction work has been seen at the field. The present condition of the airfield precludes occupation by an air unit. 1 Annex: Airfield of TARNETITZ	ots. ne air- ing ARNE- eied anged in
            		and the concrete landing field was damaged in several spo (Location of airfield, see Annex.) The houses west of the field were occupied by German refugees. Early October 1949 The TARNETITZ airfield was not occupied. No reconditions work was under way. 11 October 1949 The southern edge of the concrete landing field of the TARNETITZ airfield was torn up. The hangars and kasernes were destroyed. The airfield was serviceable but was unoccupitand unguarded. Comment: The condition and occupation of the airfield have not che since August 1949. Contrary to an assumption mentioned in August 1949, no reconstruction work has been seen at the field. The present condition of the airfield precludes occupation by an air unit. 1 Annex: Airfield of TARNETITZ Document No. MO CHANGE in Class of the concrete landing field of the TARNETITZ Document No. MO CHANGE in Class of the Class. Control of the airfield precludes occupation by an air unit.	e air- ing ARNE~ eied anged in
(1		and the concrete landing field was damaged in several spo (Location of airfield, see Annex.) The houses west of the field were occupied by German refugees. Early October 1949 The TARNETITZ airfield was not occupied. No reconditional work was under way. 11 October 1949 The southern edge of the concrete landing field of the TARNETITZ airfield was torn up. The hangars and kasernes were destroyed. The airfield was serviceable but was unoccupitand unguarded. Comment: The condition and occupation of the airfield have not che since August 1949. Contrary to an assumption mentioned in August 1949, no reconstruction work has been seen at the field. The present condition of the airfield precludes occupation by an air unit. 1 Annex: Airfield of TARNETITZ Document No. NO CHANGE in Cases. NO CHANGE in Cases. On CHANGE in Cases. NO CHANGE in Cases. On CHANGE in Cases. On CHANGE in Cases. NO CHANGE in Cases. On CHANGE in Cases.	ots. ne air- ing ARME- eied anged in